FAMILY GAMES

Fast-paced and lots of action!

A game of rapid visual recognition!

Perfect for game nights with family & friends!

Same classic game, now with a fresh new look and available in 3 vibrant colors! Purple, Yellow & Teal

The object of the game is to be the player who, by thinking ahead, forces their opponent to press down the last bubble. On a player's turn, they select a row and press down any number of bubbles on that row. The opponent then presses down any number of unpressed bubbles in a row of their choice. The player left to press the last bubble on the board loses the round. Once a match is over, simply flip the board to start a new round. Last One Lost is compact and has no loose or noise-making pieces, making it great for playing in a car, bus, or plane, at a restaurant, or at school. It's also water resistant, so you can play it while camping or at the beach!

In this fast and colorful game of visual perception players slide rows or columns of balls in an effort to align together two or more balls of the same color. The balls that were aligned are collected and count towards the player's score. Can you identify the move that will allow you to collect the most balls?

how to play

On their turn, each player selects a line of balls (horizontal or vertical) and pushes it in a single direction all the way to the edge of the game board, regrouping all the balls from the line in the process.

The move is valid when at least two balls of the same color are adjacent (horizontally or vertically). The player then collects all balls of the same color that are adjacent to each other and places them in their tray.

Players count the points based on the balls collected in their trays. For every 3 balls of the same color collected, a player gets 1 point. The player with most points is the winner.

DIG IT!™

It's a great day to be a dog in the park. The sun is shining, there are no cats to be seen... and the tantalizing whiff of a big, crunchy bone can be smelled from somewhere nearby. But shuffling around the patches of turf to dig it up is going to require creativity and cleverness.
That's no problem for a keen canine like you: The challenge will only make the reward that much more delicious, so get out there, think it through and dig it!
