With ChatGPT, BARD, and other artificial intelligence chatbots often dominating the headlines, it's easy to forget that these smart tools are still just that - tools. They operate according to certain rules and respond to human inquiries, sometimes intelligently and sometimes less so. By better understanding the rules that govern their behavior, we can make more effective use of them.

Playing games requires players to understand the rules that govern the specific game universe and develop strategies that will allow them to prevail. At FoxMind, our objective is to make this kind of smart thinking fun instead of hard or tedious work. That's why our motto is "Smarter Fun." We strive to make our games, fun, smart, accessible, and enjoyable for everyone allowing them to make better use of the tools available to them in the real world.

Our numerous awards from around the world, including MENSA awards and Toy of The Year Awards, along with the countless messages we receive from consumers, encourage us to continue doing what we love. However, we couldn't have achieved this success without the support of retailers, reps, and final consumers. To all of you, we offer our heartfelt thanks.

Thank you!
